Brooke Valverde is from the tiny East Texas town of Jefferson. She works for the Transportation Department at Jefferson ISD and spends as much time as possible in England, where her husband is from. They met while she was living in England and have traveled over much of Europe and the US together. She got her first horse when she was 10 and spent her teenage years trail riding and competing in playdays before moving into showing APHA, PtHA and AQHA halter horses. Over ten years ago, she bought her first American Shetland Pony and has since focused on showing ASPC registered ponies. Working exclusively as a groom for many years, she then acquired her ASPC/AMHR Steward's Card and then her ASPC/AMHR Judge's Card followed by her GVHS Judge's card and is continuing to add to her cards. She has worked open and breed shows. Her ponies and horses have earned National titles and she has sold ponies from her breeding program to many countries including Canada, Mexico, the Netherlands, and the United Kingdom. Her latest addition to her program is a registered Friesian Sport horse mare. She has exhibited in or officiated over 100 shows in many breeds and disciplines.
