

Joan Werner has been active in the horse industry for 25 years. She trains, shows, judges and manages horse shows. Joan is currently on the Board of Directors for several regional horse clubs as well as a sought after clinician.

In addition to her personal accomplishments, Joan is one of the head trainers at Windemere Equestrian Center which has one of the largest youth and non pro programs in the Southeast. Windemere also has an active breeding program and has bred multiple World and National Champion Appaloosas. Joan trains horses and riders in multiple disciplines including huntseat, saddleseat, over fences, trail, ranch, cattle and speed events.

In addition to her GVHS card, Joan also holds a card with the American Ranch Horse Association. Not only has she judged many shows all over the United States, she has worked the Feathered Horse Classic Nationals in Jacksonville, FL for many years and judged this show in 2018.
