

Elizabeth Phillips is owner, and operator of Top C Stable located in Northeastern Ohio. The farm's main focus is on Ranch Horses and Working Cow Horses, as well as Mounted Shooting Horses.

Elizabeth has been involved in the horse industry all her life as a horse show judge, coach, clinician and instructor. She has gained a wealth of knowledge in over 40 years of judging horse shows of all kinds. A multi 5 carded judge and an elected member of the Ohio State Judges Committee with a commitment to help children and their horses reach their dreams has produced State, National and World Winners thru the years. Many of her youth riders have went on to become professional horseman themselves as adults.
